

With special banners framing the doorway, Clark Hall in Port Credit is ready for the Hallmark Council meeting held here on June 23, 2010 in honour of Port Credit's 175th Anniversary.

One of the painted bicycle planters sponsored by the Town of Port Credit Association (TOPCA) was installed in front of Clarke Hall just in time. This is the official PC175 bike, painted to match the PC175 crest, shown at right.

Inside Clarke Hall, the set-up is complete to welcome Council.

Commissioner
Dimitris Karamanolis
MEMBER

Commissioner
Dimitris Karamanolis
MEMBER

Chair
Dimitris Karamanolis

Commissioner
Dimitris Karamanolis
MEMBER

Commissioner
Dimitris Karamanolis
MEMBER

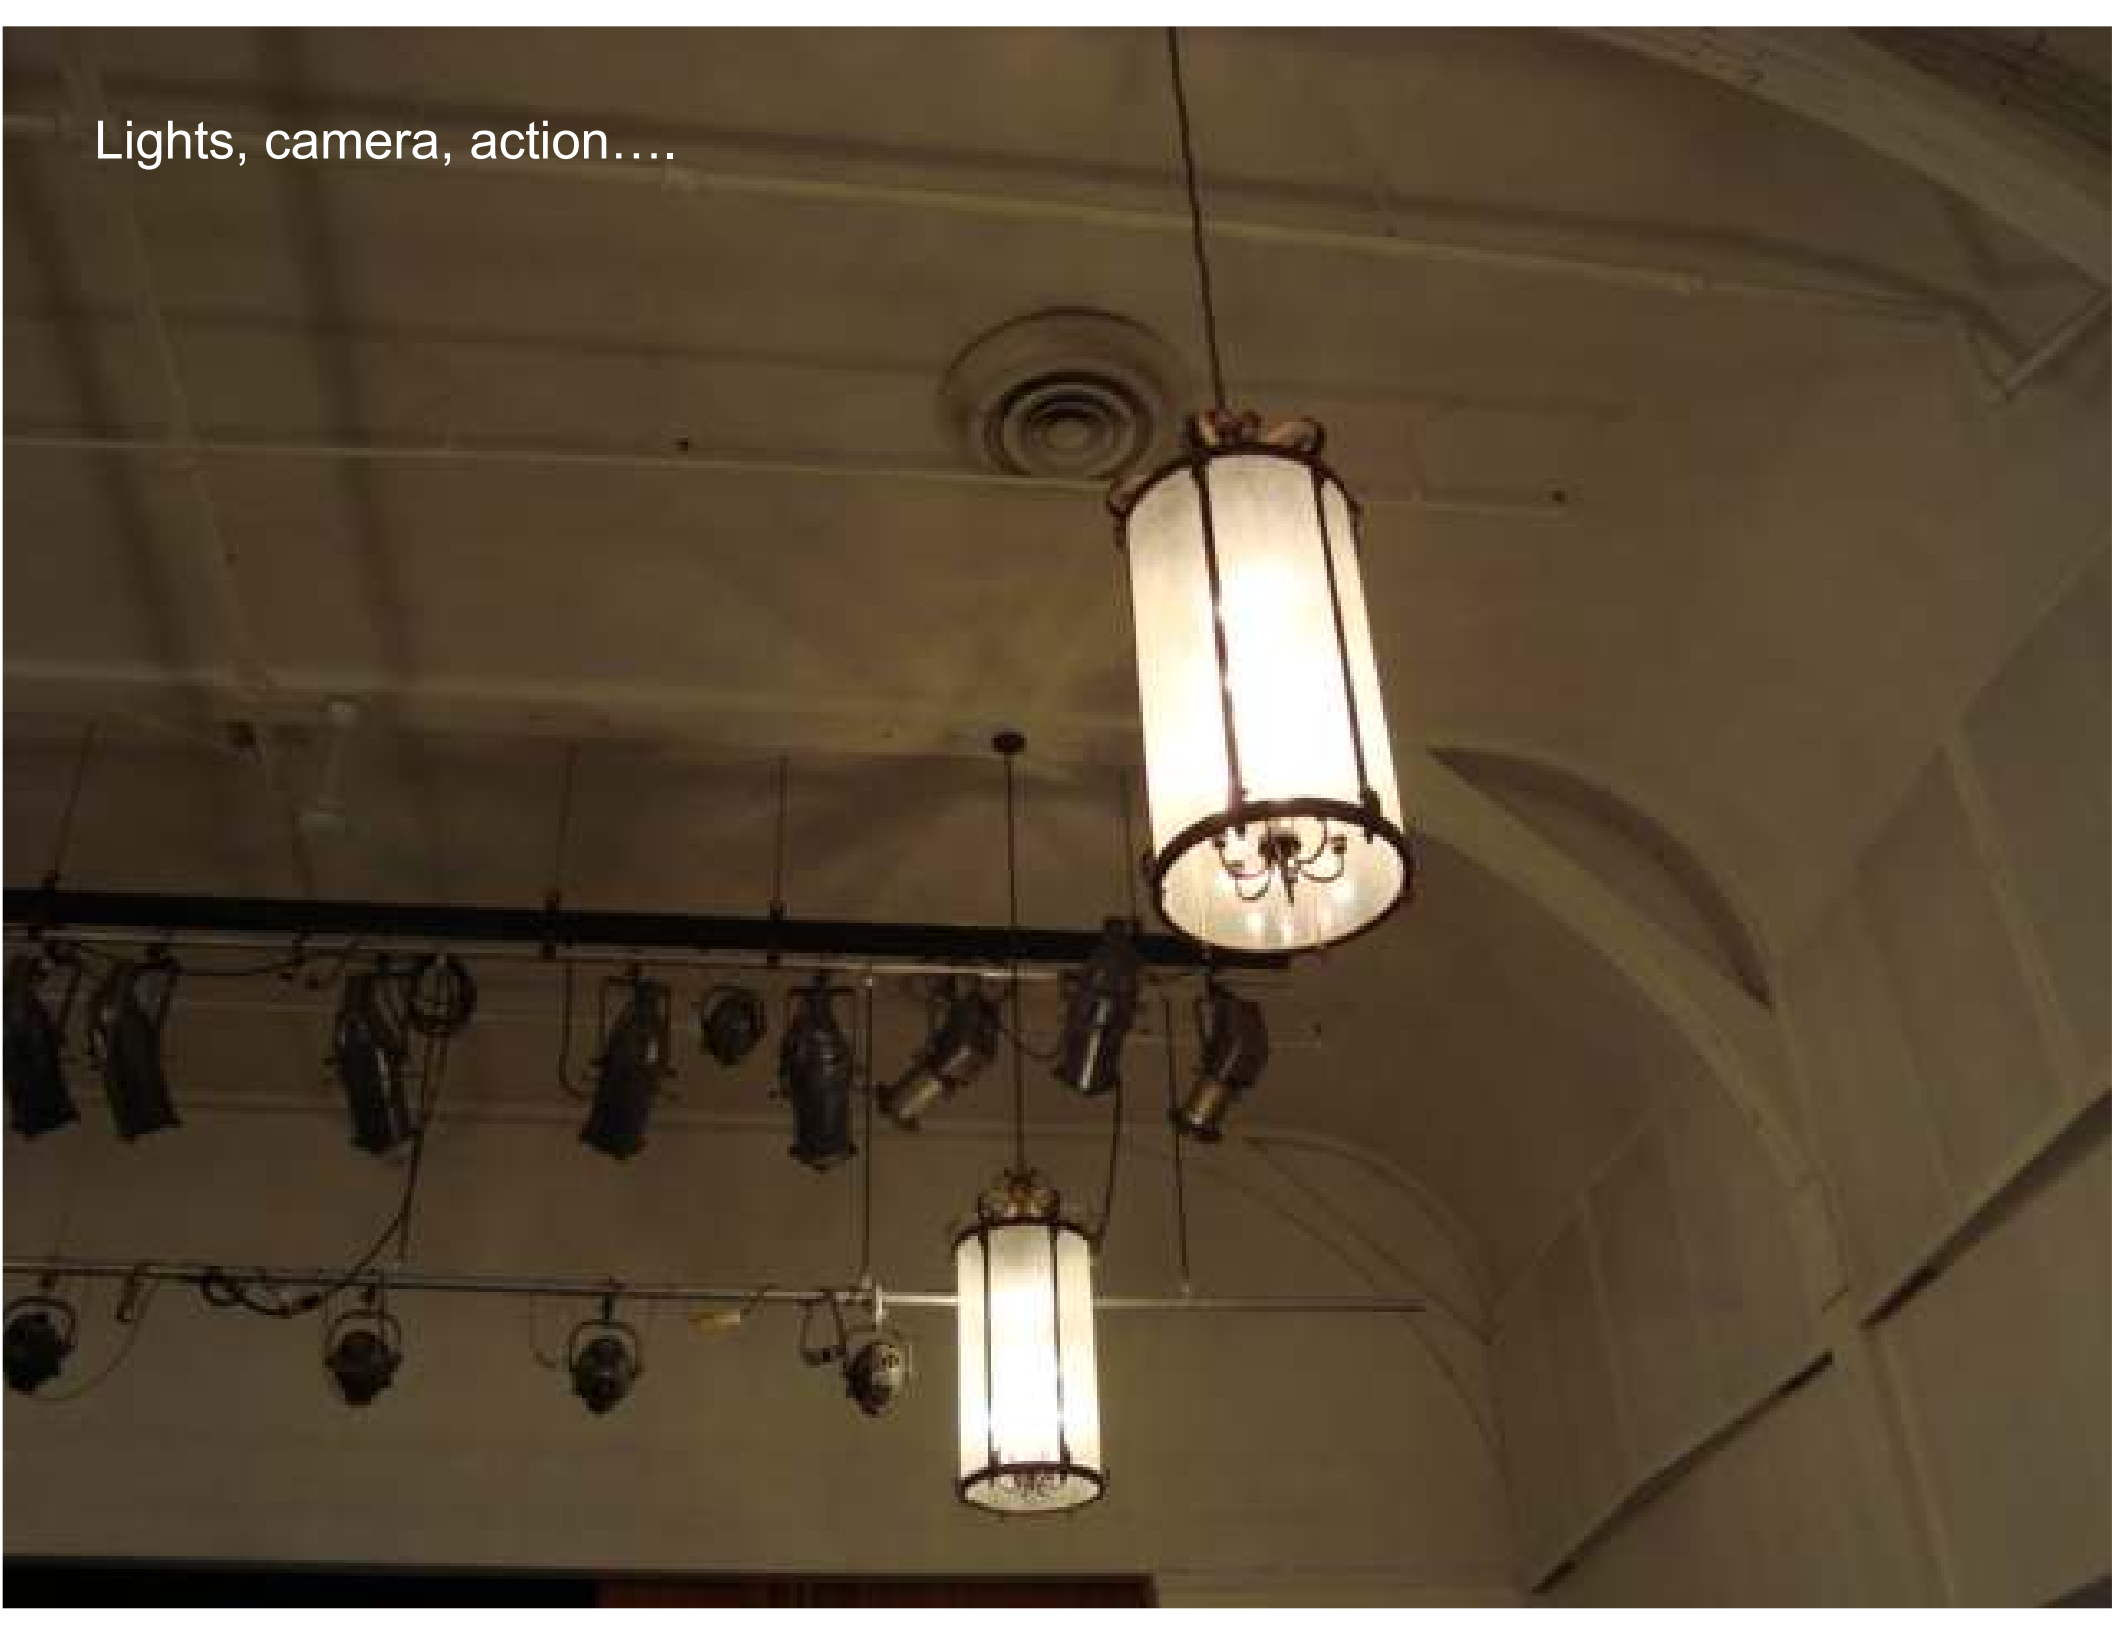

Dimitris Karamanolis
Commissioner

Dimitris Karamanolis
Commissioner

Printed Council Agendas of this historical meeting.

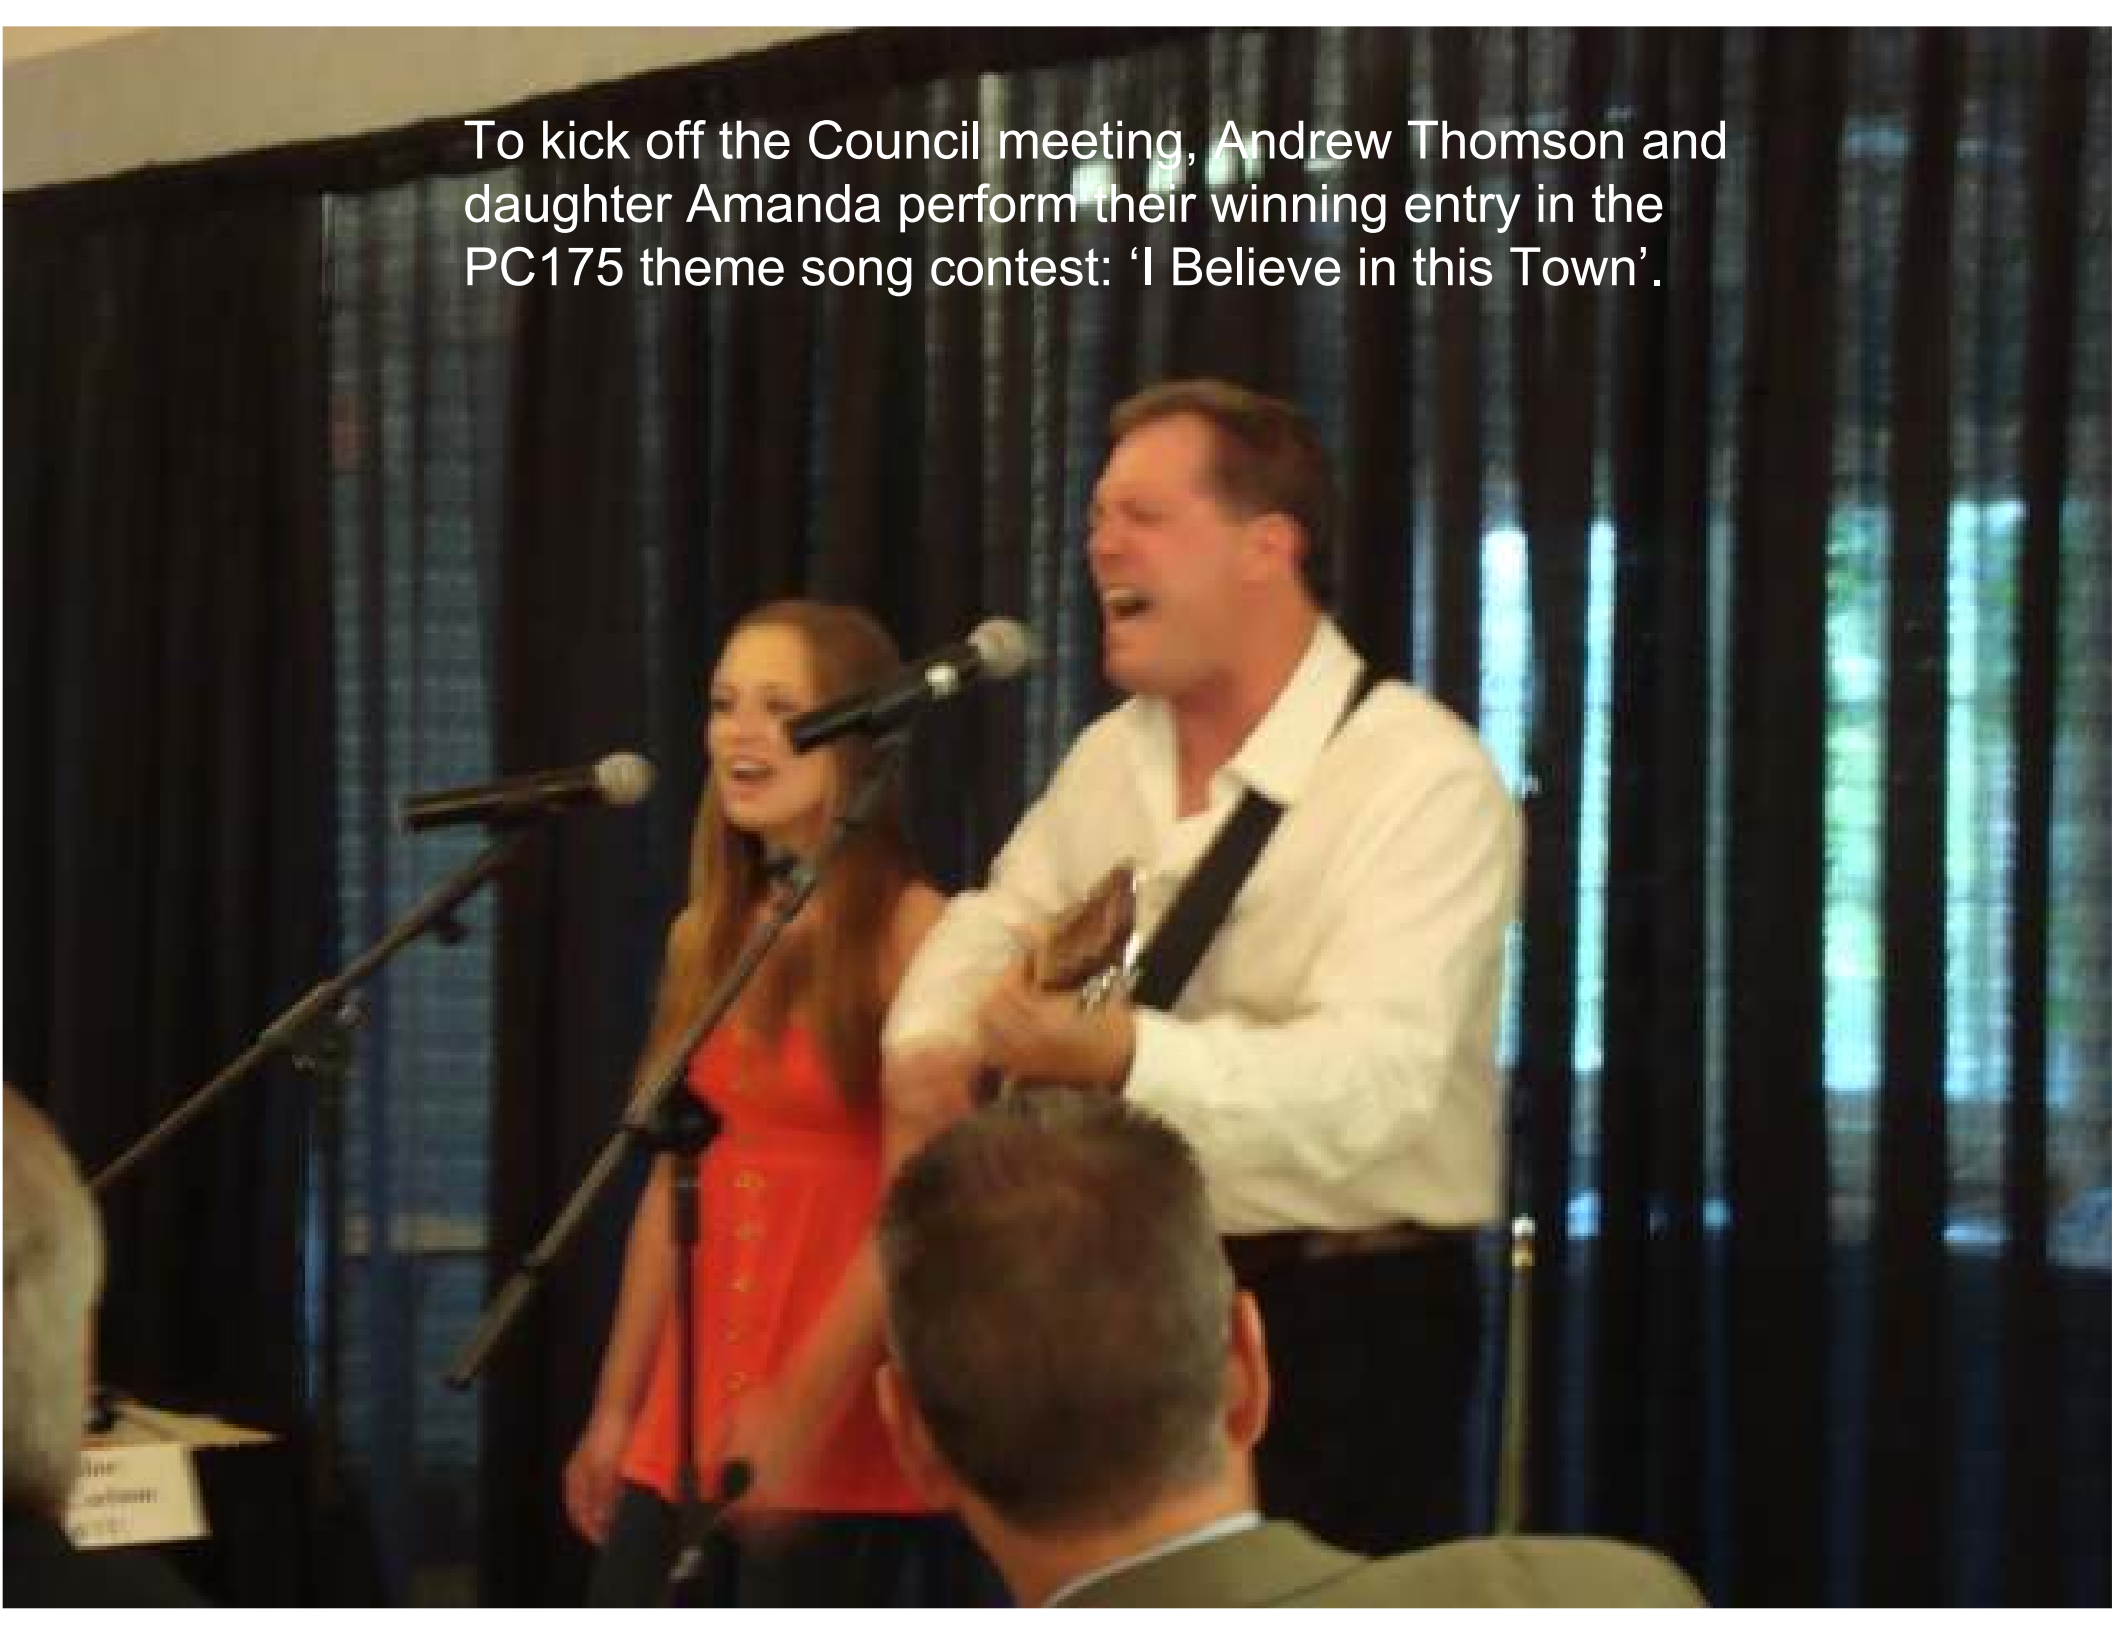

Lights, camera, action....

PC175 Chair Lydia Ordonez-Niles sits with other PC175 Executive members.

To kick off the Council meeting, Andrew Thomson and daughter Amanda perform their winning entry in the PC175 theme song contest: 'I Believe in this Town'.

Senior City staff in place for the Council meeting.

Mayor Hazel McCallion and all of Council were in attendance at the Hallmark meeting.

*Mayor
Hazel McCullion*

Ward 1 Councillor Carmen Corbasson, far left, wore her 'bathing beauty' period costume.

Unveiling the replica of the plaque that will be placed at Port Credit Memorial Park.

Mississauga South MPP Charles Sousa addresses Council in honour of PC175.

Mississauga South MP Paul Szabo addresses Council in honour of PC175.

Former Port Credit Councillor Terry Butt (L) and BIA rep John Bozzo (R).

Councillor Corbasson with Ward 2 Councillor Pat Mullin.

Out on the steps of Clarke Hall after the Council meeting, the photo op begins with the Mayor and Councillors.

PC175 Executive members (L-R): Lydia O-N, Sue Hinton, Dorothy Tomiuk, Tammy Ralston, John Cassan, Toby Gardiner, Fred Lawlor.

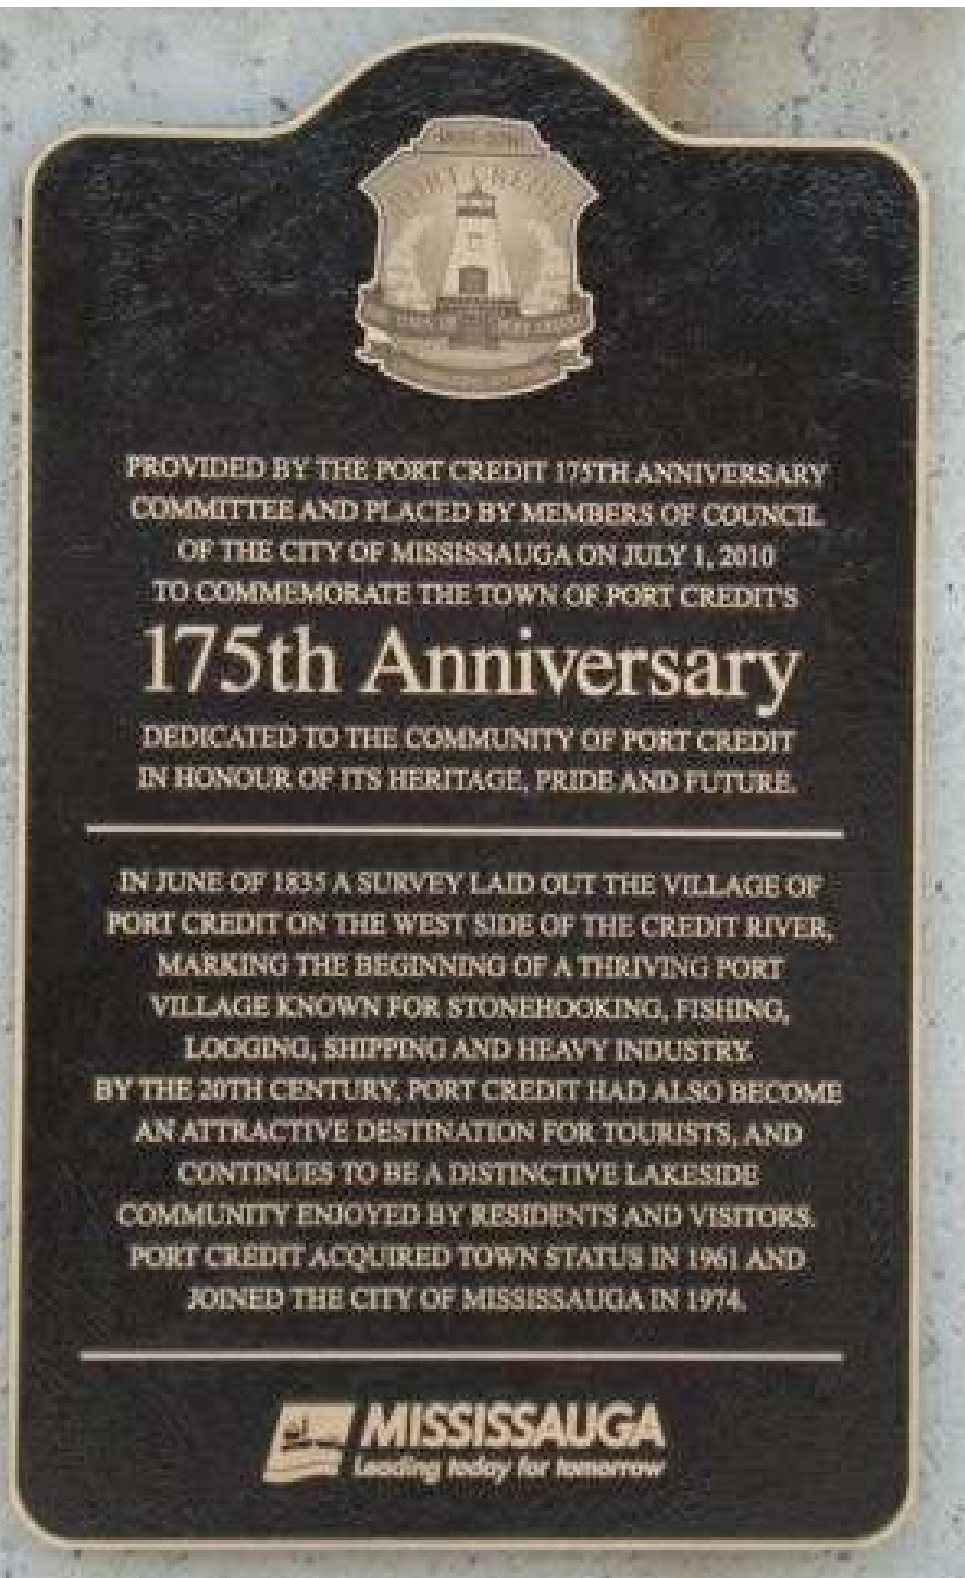

Senior staff City staff and the PC175 Executive Committee join the Council members.

This is the photo which ran in the Mississauga News on June 23, 2010 with the caption shown at right.

Happy Anniversary. To commemorate Port Credit's 175th Anniversary, today's Mississauga Council meeting was held at Clarke Hall (formerly Port Credit City Hall). After the meeting, Mayor Hazel McCallion, the councillors, city staff and the Port Credit 175th Anniversary organizing committee posed on the steps of the heritage building. Staff photo by Fred Loek

Actual PC175 commemorative plaque, as it was installed at Port Credit Memorial Park.

During the clean-up after the Council meeting, a photo-op of the home-made lemonade served to the Councillors as an old-time touch.

The PC175 Executive clean-up crew including (L-R): Dawn Dixon, Tammy, Dorothy and Lydia.

