PC175 Executive member Fred Lawlor joins the float.

The 'leopard' is supposed to be a mascot for the Credit Valley Lions Club, a major sponsor of the PC175 year. The kids watching the parade loved it, although a leopard in a fishing boat was perhaps a bit of a disconnect.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus find their position in the staging area.

Kids of all ages love Santa and ask him for presents.

Getting ready to start walking....

2008 was Streetsville's big year!

Mayor Hazel McCallion greeted all the floats at the end of the parade.

Thanks so much to Ed Sheldrake for donating his time and his rig again this year to make this float possible!
